Scholarship Contract and Conditions

1. Scholarship funds are awarded on the basis of the applicant's financial need, spiritual maturity, academic excellence, and ministry potential. WOL Hungary has the right to remove scholarship funds at any time if these qualities are not being met by the scholarship recipient.
2. Scholarship recipients must sign and comply with the Scholarship Contract.
3. Scholarship recipients must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA to qualify for continued funding.
4. Scholarship recipients are expected to write quarterly thank-you notes and/or newsletters to their assigned supporter(s), including a testimony at the beginning of the school year.

Scholarship recipients will receive further explanation of their responsibilities once funds have been distributed. There is a limited amount of scholarship money, so financial aid is not guaranteed for everyone.

I, _____, understand the terms and conditions described within the Scholarship Contract. I have answered the Scholarship Application questions with complete honesty, and I will comply with my responsibilities as a scholarship recipient.
